

Emotional health support for Ben E. Keith employees

Struggling with emotional challenges can make you feel isolated, frustrated, and overwhelmed. It impacts every stage of life, and affects how you think, feel, and act. Learning how mental illness differs from other illnesses and recognizing the warning signs will make it easier to get the help you need.

It's important to know that asking for help is a normal part of life. You never need to feel like you have to take on the world alone. If you or a loved one is struggling or has concerns about their mental health or illness, learn about how others have coped then reach out to one of the resources listed on the back of this handout.

First, understand the difference between mental health and mental illness

At times, people use the terms interchangeably. But, poor mental health and mental illness are not the same. It's important to understand the difference.

- Mental health includes your emotional, psychological, and social well-being. It also helps determine how you handle stress, relate to others, and make healthy choices.
- Mental illness is one of the most common health conditions in the United States. It affects a person's thinking, mood or behavior. The most common forms include depression, anxiety, bipolar disorder, and schizophrenia. These may be short-term or long-lasting and affect a person's ability to function day-to-day.

A person can experience poor mental health and not have a mental illness. A person with a mental illness can experience periods of good social or emotional well-being.

Recognize warning signs

When it comes to your emotions, it can be hard to know what's normal and what's not. Pay attention to warning signs like these that show that you (or a loved one) may have a mental health problem:

- Withdrawing from the people and activities you once enjoyed
- Having low or no energy
- Smoking, drinking, or using drugs more than usual
- Having severe mood swings that cause problems in your relationships

Costs if you are enrolled in a BEK UHC Medical Plan

Both the BEK PPO and the BEK HSA Medical Plans cover a wide range of emotional support benefits including everything from virtual visits with your physician to in-patient treatment. Login or register on myuhc.com/ then click on Find a Doctor to:

- Find and compare average costs for providers in your network, including mental health services.
- See the average costs for specific treatments in your area.

Not currently covered on a BEK medical plan?

Ben E. Keith provides all employees and their family members with free confidential counseling and guidance through the BEK Employee Assistance Program (EAP). Call 1-866-343-3822 or go to awpnow.com anytime for support including up to six free weekly video, telephone or chat sessions with a counselor about:

- Stress or health issues
- Relationship including family
- Alcohol or drug dependencies
- Legal and financial issues

Emotional health support for Ben E. Keith employees

To learn more about emotional health concerns and how others have coped, watch a video on liveandworkwell.com about conditions that may affect you and your family members.

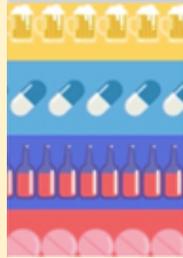

Panic disorder
Don't let panic attacks take over your life. Here's how one sufferer tackled hers.

WATCH

Anxiety
Anxiety can make everyday life hard. Here's how to cope and get your life back.

WATCH

Drinking or using drugs
Congressman Patrick Kennedy talks about his own struggle – and how recovery is possible.

WATCH

Depression
If it's hard to remember what happiness feels like, it could be depression. You are not alone.

WATCH

Sleep difficulties
Can't sleep? Always tired? With help, you can learn how to get the restful sleep you need.

WATCH

Unwanted memories
A traumatic event can haunt you. Here's how a Veteran finally made peace with the past.

WATCH

Where to get the support you need

If you are enrolled in the BEK PPO or HSA Medical Plan, call the phone number on the back of your ID card or:

Available at no cost to employees & family

For everybody, any time.

STRESS AND ANXIETY HELPLINE
available 24/7
1-866-342-6892

SUBSTANCE ABUSE SUPPORT & ADVOCATES
available 24/7 at 1-855-780-5955
Live chat on liveandworkwell.com or arrange a face-to-face evaluation (typically within 24 hours)

BEK Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
Awpnow.com or 1-800-343-3822

SUICIDE PREVENTION LIFELINE
Talk to someone now if you or a family member needs help
1-800-273-8255

As always, talk to your HR Manager or Office Manager if you have questions.